WHY PROSPERA

What sets us apart

International team, cross-cultural expertise

Familiar with diplomatic etiquette, international business practice and Chinese cultural nuance, we keep communication clear and visits running smoothly.

Established local resource network

Hotels, transport, venues and cultural partners across Beijing and China's major cities, coordinated to international service standards.

Full-cycle management, quality assured

One team manages each visit from planning to follow-up, with a coordinated supplier network delivering every detail as agreed.

Goal-oriented, creating long-term value

We focus on every guest's experience and the long-term relationships each visit builds between partners in China and abroad.

Relevant Institutional and Event Experience

Prospera's core team and professional partner network bring established experience in major institutional events, stakeholder coordination and complex on-site delivery across China. These capabilities provide a strong foundation for our delegation and destination services.
